RETREAT MAY BE BLOCKED

REPORTED THAT RUSSIAN FORCE serious than a series of rear guard IS CUT OFF FROM MUKDEN BY THE JAPANESE.

The forces of Kuropatkin and Oyama are racing for Mukden. This much stands out in the news of Monday, and kin has dispatched Rennenkamp and is indicated in a report forwarded by Kuropatkin, who says that his retreat is being conducted in perfect order, though the Japanese on Sunday repeatedly attacked his rear and conresult of the race is in doubt.

The united Russian forces are now north of Yentai, a station on the railway about ten miles northeast of Liaoyang. They are pushing on to Mukden, to which the bulk of the Japanese forces is marching direct, after having swarmed across the Taitse river. yang and is trying to get between the Russian forces and Mukden.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 6.—A summary of the war situation to date shows that the whole Russian army or a major portion of it is already above Yentai and toward Mukden. Field Marshal Oyama's force has crossed the Taitse river and part of it is hanging onto Kuropatkin's flank.

Oyama's advance is reported to be not expected to develop anything more actions tending to harrass Kuropat-kin's retreat. The Japanese have thrown a strong flanking column across the Taitse, at Benizbou, about thirty miles east of Liaoyang. This column is advancing toward the northeast and endeavoring to get in between the Russian army and Mukden. The latest report is that General Kuropatkin is once more in danger of being cut off, and it is believed here to be likely that this report will be repeated several times before the issue of the sanguinary struggle is decided. English military critics base such opinions as they have upon the tremendous topographical difficulties General Kuroki must overcome before intercepting Kuropatkin, who, they hold, has shown ability to take advantage of every phase in the strategy of retreat. If Kuroki now succeeds, after failing in the initial attempt, he will have accomplished, in English eyes, an almost superhuman achievement. Here it is almost taken for granted that a Japanese occupation of Mukden must quickly ensue. No se rious English critic supposes that Kuropatkin will dream of making such another attempt to stem the Japanese

RACING FOR MUKDEN

ENDEAVORING TO REACH NORTHERN CITY.

REAR GUARD BADLY BEATEN

AND KUROPATKIN'S MAIN ARMY IS IN DANGER OF BEING SURROUNDED.

RETREAT MAY BE BLOCKED

REPORTED THAT RUSSIAN FORCE IS CUT OFF FROM MUKDEN BY THE JAPANESE.

The forces of Kuropatkin and Oyama are racing for Mukden. This much stands out in the news of Monday, and kin has dispatched Rennenkamp and is indicated in a report forwarded by Kuropatkin, who says that his retreat is being conducted in perfect order, though the Japanese on Sunday repeatedly attacked his rear and continued the attack until Monday. The result of the race is in doubt.

The united Russian forces are now north of Yentai, a station on the railway about ten miles northeast of Liaoyang. They are pushing on to Mukden, to which the bulk of the Japanese forces is marching direct, after having swarmed across the Taitse river. A strong Japanese flanking column is about thirty miles northeast of Liaoyang and is trying to get between the Russian forces and Mukden.

With this race in progress there comes a brief dispatch from Mukden saying that preparations for the evacuation of that place are proceeding. This report, if well founded, wound mean the abandonment of the whole of Southern Manchuria and the winding up of the present campaign. is reported in St. Petersburg at a hour Monday night that Kuropatin's rear guard had been almost annihilated and that the main Russian army was in danger of being sur-

Loss of Big Guns Almost Certain.

Nevertheless, it is almost certain that he lost his heaviest artillery at Liaoyang, for even military critics at St. Petersburg incline to this belief. One report from Sinmintin to London says Kuropatkin's retreat has GOING SOUTH, been cut off. At any rate the plight of his army is deplorable, for indications are that the Russian reinforcements at Mukden are mythical, or that place would not prepare for evacuation, and the fresh Russian troops patkin's favor.

The evacuation of Mukden will probably mean that if Kuropatkin reaches that place in safety, his weary I troops can halt for but a brief space before continuing the long, weary march to Harbin.

After the hard fighting at Liaoyang, the ability of the Japanese to at once pursue the Russians speak volumes for their endurance. But by this time Oyama should have 50,000 fresh troops some days ago, while the Russian army under General Linevitch of 30,000 men, reported near Mukden, has not materialized.

It is not improbable that the Japanese, with their wonderful intelligence the column reported north of Kuropatkin's forces is intended to cut the railroad above that city or even take the city itself before the arrival of the retreating main Russian army.

Advices from Port Arthur by way of Chefoo bring the fighting there up to Sept. 2, and say the Japanese losses were very heavy.

OYAMA'S FORCES CROSS RIVER Part of Japanese Army Hanging Onto

Kuropatkin's Flank. St. Petersburg, Sept. 6 .- A summary of the war situation to date shows that the whole Russian army or a major portion of it is already above Yentai and toward Mukden. Field Marshal Oyama's force has crossed the Taitse river and part of it is hanging onto Kuropatkin's flank. Oyama's advance is reported to be engaging the Russian rear, but it is not expected to develop anything more serious than a series of rear guard actions tending to harrass Kuropat kin's retreat. The Japanese have thrown a strong flanking column across the Taitse, at Benizbou, about thirty miles east of Liaoyang. This column is advancing toward the northeast and endeavoring to get in between the Russian army and Mukden. It is against this column that Kuropat his Cossacks, which have already blockaded the roads.

The soldiers are marching in light order and most of the wounded have already been dispatched north by train. General Kuropatkin, in a dispatch to the general staff, filed at 7 p. m., Sept. 5, says the Japanese on Sunday engaged his rear guard south of Yentai, the fight continuing until Monday. The telegram details the precautions taken to checkmate the Japanese flankers. Kuropatkin estimated his loss up to is considered to be a very conservative figure. The loss to the Japanese will probably be double this number, owing to their position of attackers. Kuropatkin says nothing of the loss of guns, but it is probable that the heavy emplaced guns have been abandoned.

There is no truth in the report that Kuropatkin has been wounded.

CARRIED OUT IN GOOD ORDER. Retreat of Russians From Liaoyang Well Conducted.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 6.-Under date of Sept. 5, General Kuropatkin telegraphs the emperor as follows:

retreat of our troops Kuropatkin in his report makes no Liaoyang on the right bank of the Taitse river on the night of Sept. 4

WILL RETREAT TO HARBIN

KUROPATKIN MUST SURRENDER SOUTHERN MANCHURIA TO VICTORIOUS FOE.

Mukden, Sept. 6.-Preparations for the evacuation of Mukden are proceeding. The Japanese advance is within thirty miles.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 6.-It is impossible to obtain any statement from the authorities regarding the reported preparations for the abandonment of Mukden.

This is the first intimation that such a course is contemplated. If it turns out to be true it means the abandonment of the whole of Southern Manchuria and the winding up of the present campaign.

In fact, should Mukden be evacuated, there would be no point for wintering the army of a quarter of a million men with its many wounded short of

On the other hand the evacuation of Mukden would give Field Marshal Oyama commodius winter quarters and the practical control of two lines of railway. The Kinchou-Sinmintin line, tapping rich Chinese territory, stops little short of Mukden, with and including Sept. 4 at 16,000. This which it is connected by a good wagon road.

The report of the prospective evacuation of Mukden, if well founded, would indicate that the crippling effect of the Liaoyang fighting on Kuropatkin's army is more serious than has as yet been intimated.

A TRADE JOURNAL MISREPRESENTS ORGANIZED LABOR.

Serious and Unsubstantial Charges That Union Officers Are Dishonest. The Power of Local Unions to Strike Clearly Defined.

At times the prominent trade journals in taking up the question of trades unionism so misrepresent its attitude on E. W. M. Parry it makes the following statements and criticisms:

"It must be confessed, however, that during the past twelve months public opinion has experienced a great change as regards trades unions. Many of those who have regarded with great toleration what they deemed the natural excesses of a young movement and held the belief that with the first evidences of a lessened speed of revolution in the wheels of industry labor would become conservative have at last reached a realizing sense of the fact that during our long period of national prosperity a great deal has happened of which they have had no just comprehension. A local union, far from being able to order a strike upon its own volition or force a quarrel that would bring this about, is dependent upon its national organization for the sanction to proceed, and should the union take action and proceed without this it incurs the penalty of suspension. This discipline has been enforced on many occasions during the present year by the various national podies. It is absurd to believe that national unions could exist if the local bodies had full autonomy. If the local ganization have its authority, and of what benefit would it be in guiding and supporting its members?

Labor Unions In Mexico.

Labor unions are slowly making their way into Mexico. In the city of Durango, for example, there are three associations, one with more than 700 members. These are not composed strictly of artisans, though in theory they are intended so to be, and not one of them as yet has attempted to influence the wage scale, though there seems no reason why they should not do so if the need therefor should occur. Their main object is mutual aid, and they fulfill their mission to some extent. - New York Journal.

Just as capital grows, so grow also pauperism, that millstone round the neck of civilization; the revolting cruelties of our actory system, the squalor of great cities and the presence of deep poverty seated hard by the gate of enormous wealth .- Karl Marx.

THE BIG PARADE.

The parade, while not as large in poin of the number of floats which turned out, was one of the most representative ever seen in Brainerd and what there was must be commended for its excellence. There were one or two features of the parade that would have opened the eyes of even the management of the State Fair and would have attracted at demonstration.

The first division of the parade reached the down town district about 10 o'clock and there was a glad reception for the boys who had turned out.

Chief Marshal C. A. Wilkins with As sistant Marshal Conant headed the line and they were followed by a carriage in which rode President William R. Heron, of the Trades and Labor Assembly and Mayor A. J. Halsted. They were followed by carriages in which rode the speakers of the day, Mr. John Gardiner, Rev. Father D. W. Lynch and Attorney A. T. Larson. ## BOTH THE GAMES

a gang of ragmuffins, happy Hooligans Resulting in Considerable Delay but Brainerd Came up Smiling Most Every Time.

> Brainerd won both games from the Duluth Fashions played in this city on Sunday and yesterday afternoon. The irst game was won by a score of 10 to and yesterday's game was won by a core of 6 to 5.

The game yesterday was prolific of strenuous kicking, Brainerd sharing in the honors in this instance. It looked like easy money for Duluth at the start. Mattson was put in to pitch and they connected with his shoots rather too regularly, getting eight hits in the four nnings he pitched. Jim Boyle, who had pitched the game the day before, went in and pitched the balance of the game and he had the Fashions at his mercy. They only got five hits off Boyle and two more scores. Boyle pitched a fine game, keeping his head all the time and doing his best work when it seemed as though the game was lost.

Levelle was in the box for the visitors and for a time it looked as though he might make good as there was not a hit made during the first three innings. In the fourth, however, they landed on him and pounded out four hits, two of them two baggers, getting in three runs and tieing the score. From this on it was nip and tuck.

There was all kirds of commotion in the first of the ninth. Duluth was having their ins and the score was 5 to 4 in favor of Brainerd. The first man up went out from second to first. The next man up singled and the man who followed did the same thing. The next man up hit a dinky one out toward third base; Pat Boyle picked it up and, it is claimed, stepped on the line which would naturally put the runner from second to third out as it was a force, Umpire McClary called the man at third safe and a roar went up that was fierce, but it didn't make any difference. Pat Boyle quit the game for a while and there was a stormy time, but finally he when the motor underneath the wagon along the line of march the Brainerd came back again and the man was given E. Kelley as umpire, the score being 5 to 5. Brainerd had one more time at bat and they made things hum. With E. Boyle on second and P. Boyle on first Roderick slammed out a two bagger time. It is thought this was one of the but The Dispatch will publish the list over the fence, bringing in E. Boyle and the winning score.

The decision of Umpire McClary is claimed by some to have been correct; that P. Boyle did not cross the line, but it made no difference with the final result, for after giving Duluth this score Brainerd won out fair and square. The

As early as 8 o'clock in the morning and children anticipating the big parade Kindred street in East Brainerd at 9 o'clock. There was no delay and everything went like clock work. There was not an unfortunate feature to mar the occasion and to rob the excellent showing of one iota of its magnificence. The day was anything but a perfect one for a demonstration of this kind. The skies were clouded and it is was threatening throughout the morning, but by 11 o'clock the sun peeped through the clouds, and while the addresses were being made at the stand on the corner of Fifth and Laurel the atmosphere had been pretty well cleared and there was good feeling everywhere.

THE BIG PARADE.

The parade, while not as large in point of the number of floats which turned out, was one of the most representative ever seen in Brainerd and what there was must be commended for its excellence. There were one or two features of the parade that would have opened the eyes of even the management of the State Fair and would have attracted attention in a much more pretentious demonstration.

The first division of the parade reached the down town district about 10 o'clock and there was a glad reception for the boys who had turned out.

Chief Marshal C. A. Wilkins with Assistant Marshal Conant headed the line and they were followed by a carriage in which rode President William R. Heron, of the Trades and Labor Assembly and Mayor A. J. Halsted. They were followed by carriages in which rode the speakers of the day, Mr. John Gardiner, Rev. Father D. W. Lynch and Attorney A. T. Larson. Then followed the members of the council riding in carriages and they were followed by the various shop foremen riding in carriages.

The first body of men in line were the delegates to the Trades and Labor Assembly. They made an excellent showing both in point of number of men taste displayed in the selection of their | caps. uniforms. They wore light straw hats, black coats and white duck pants with neat negligee shirts with standing collars and black ties.

They were followed by the Teamsters Union, the members making a very good showing. They had a simple float which represented a man hauling a dray load of trunks and the dray was approriately decorated in red, white and blue. The men who marched behind wore uniforms of blue and carried whips, their emblem of persuasion.

BRAINERD TOOK BOTH THE GAMES

WAS RAG CHEWING GALORE

Resulting in Considerable Delay but Brainerd Came up Smiling Most Every Time.

Brainerd won both games from the Duluth Fashions played in this city on Sunday and yesterday afternoon. The first game was won by a score of 10 to 8 and yesterday's game was won by a score of 6 to 5.

The game yesterday was prolific of strenuous kicking, Brainerd sharing in the honors in this instance. It looked like easy money for Duluth at the start. Mattson was put in to pitch and they connected with his shoots rather too regularly, getting eight hits in the four innings he pitched. Jim Boyle, who had pitched the game the day before, went in and pitched the balance of the game and he had the Fashions at his mercy. They only got five hits off Boyle and two more scores. Boyle pitched a fine game, keeping his head all the time and doing his best work when it seemed as though the game was lost.

Levelle was in the box for the visitors and for a time it looked as though he might make good as there was not a hit made during the first three innings. In the fourth, however, they landed on him and pounded out four hits, two of them two baggers, getting in three runs and tieing the score. From this on it was nip and tuck.

There was all kirds of commotion in the first of the ninth. Duluth was having their ins and the score was 5 to 4 in favor of Brainerd. The first man up went out from second to first. The next man up singled and the man who followed did the same thing. The next man up hit a dinky one out toward third base; Pat Boyle picked it up and, it is claimed, stepped on the line which would naturally put the runner from second to third out as it was a force. Umpire McClary called the man at third safe and a roar went up that was fierce, but it didn't make any difference. Pat Boyle quit the game for a while and there was a stormy time, but finally he came back again and the man was given a run and the game proceeded with W. E. Kelley as umpire, the score being 5 to 5. Brainerd had one more time at bat and they made things hum. With E. Boyle on second and P. Boyle on first Roderick slammed out a two bagger over the fence, bringing in E. Boyle and the winning score.

The decision of Umpire McClary is claimed by some to have been correct; that P. Boyle did not cross the line, but it made no difference with the final result, for after giving Duluth this score Brainerd won out fair and square. The following is the summary of the game:

SUNDAY GAME.

The first game played was on Sunday between the aggregation dubbed as the Duluth Fashions and the Brainerd team, Brainerd winning by a score of 10 to 8. It was the worst game of free-for-all kicking seen at Athletic park for some time, the Duluth players taking every opening extended to kick like bay steers, and, at that, if it had not been for Si Bennett's homer in the second inning honors in the batting department. with all the bases full and a tripple of bad errors by the home team in the eighth the boys who dub themselves "Fashions" would not have had a look

He was toucned up for 13 safe ones, one of them a home run by "Baldy" Murphy and 3 two baggers. The boys bombarded his barracks to a standstill in the second when six hits were made netting five runs. The list of doings following the home run of Bennett for Duluth made the fans boil over with enthusiasm.

The Best Prizes in the Parade Divided between Boilermakers and Car Men.

Labor Day was celebrated in Brainerd yesterday and as in the past it was one of the most important days of the entire year, thousands turning out to pay homage to the cause of organized labor and to enjoy the features which were arranged for their amusement.

The implements of labor were all laid aside for this one day and not a stroke of work was done in the various shops and other manufacturing institutions, business was suspended throughout the city and the pursuit of all business interests for the day was abandoned. It was decidedly a gala day for the trades unions and the events of the day were but the just demonstrations of a well regulated and well organized Trades and Labor Assembly in Brainerd.

As early as 8 o'clock in the morning the streets were lined with men, women and children anticipating the big parade which had been scheduled to start from Kindred street in East Brainerd at 9 o'clock. The first game played was on Sunday between the aggregation dubbed as the Duluth Fashions and the Brainerd team, Brainerd winning by a score of 10 to 8. It was the worst game of free-for-all kicking seen at Athletic park for some time, the Duluth players taking every opening extended to kick like bay steers, and, at that, if it had not been for Si Bennett's homer in the second inning with all the bases full and a tripple of bad errors by the home team in the eighth the boys who dub themselves "Fashions" would not have had a look

TOKIO GETS MASS OF REPORTS.

But Nothing Is Given Out Until All Are Put in Order.

Tokio, Sept. 6 .- A mass of official reports on the battle of Liaoyang reached the imperial headquarters Monday, but they will not be given out until it is possible to put them in order and make from them a concise and detailed story. NAST'S SURPRISE.

Dramatic Climax In the Convention Which Nominated Grant.

In May, 1868, the Republican national convention came along. Nast went to Chicago to be present.

It was settled beforehand that General Grant was to be the Republican presidential candidate. The great soldier had maintained a calm and noble conflict between congress and Andrew Johnson and was now honored almost as much for his diplomacy as for his success at arms. Indeed the mantle of sweet renown left by Lincoln would seem to have been laid upon the shoulders of Grant, and he wore it with be coming grandeur and humility.

Realizing that the convention would pared a little surprise for the event. Over Future of University.

Baltimore, Sept. 6 .- In a statement Monday Cardinal Gibbons said he did not feel any anxiety over the future of the Catholic university in Washington, nor does he fear that its prosperity will be affected by the bankruptcy of Thomas E. Waggaman of that city, who was the depository of large funds belonging to the university.

"I shall do everything in my power to assist the university," said the cardinal. "My interest in its success and prosperity is well known. There need be no apprehension that the work of the university will be impaired. There will be no diminution of its work, students will be taken as usual, and the courses will go on during the year precisely as if there had been no name Grant as its choice, Nast preshrinkage in the Waggaman funds. There is money belonging to the university which was not in the hands of
